

"This production is blessed with two very strong thespians who do not play their respective parts as much as embody them. Cheri Wicks delivers a piercing and honest performance filled with nuance and subtly... I've never quite seen saltines eaten so gracefully before... Heather Massie's part is flashier but her portrayal makes all the sense in the world once we learn about certain secrets from her past... Jesse Jou deftly directs, but it's Wicks and Massie who always keep things interesting, urgent and relevant."

Frank J. Avella, NEWYORKcool.com

"You'll want to take the journey with Greyhounds, an intriguing well-acted play."
